

NEWPORT JAZZ

FESTIVAL® DAY TRIPS FROM WBGO

Fort Adams State Park, the site of the iconic Newport Jazz Festival, is picturesque, pristine and, well, kind of a pain to reach. What's the best way to enjoy a full day of the music without feeling drained? WBGO provides the solution with the only "straight-to-the-gate" transportation option to the festival.

Arrive at the festival as the doors open, rested and ready to take on a day of fun, fresh air and jazz! With convenient departure locations in Boston, Manhattan and Newark, there's sure to be a day trip package that fits your needs.

We've laid out all the options so you can make the best choice.

DRIVE YOURSELF

Assuming you have a car, which is a big assumption in the Big Apple and most other major urban areas, we outline the costs in time and money for driving yourself to the festival:

Gas	$50
Tolls	$5
Festival Parking*	$15
Festival ticket + fees	$88
Total cost	$158 +
	8 hour drive RT

*The parking lot is about a one mile walk to the festival entrance.

PUBLIC TRANSIT

Public transportation doesn't go directly to the festival site, so to get there from the NYC metro area, one has to take a train then grab a cab for the final 30 miles.

Round Trip Train	$100+
Round Trip Taxi	$150+
Festival ticket + fees	$88
Total cost	$338+

WBGO BUS

Board one of WBGO's luxury coaches from Manhattan, Boston or Newark, and arrive rested and ready to hear a great day of music. Packages include round trip transportation on WBGO's bus plus one general admission festival ticket.

Early Bird pricing:

Boston $125 (Fri), $135 (Sat/Sun)

Manhattan $150 (Fri), $160 (Sat/Sun)

Newark $160 (Sat only)

Total cost $125-210

*Early bird pricing applies to the first ten seats on each bus. After that there are ten seats per bus at the advance rate. Finally, the general pricing will go into effect, but no regular package is more than $210.
